Friday, January 30th – 3pm–4:30pm
Ida Noyes Hall, East Lounge

All students (grad, undergrad and professional) are welcome

Interested in non-profit/NGO work and not sure how to even start looking? Not exactly sure what a non-profit is? Get overwhelmed with Idealist.org? On so many listserves your eyes are blurry? Not sure if volunteering is a foot in the door or getting taken advantage of? Then please come to “The How To’s of Non-Profit Job Search.”

This interactive workshop will be lead by Shayna Plaut (AM '03). Shayna has more than eleven years in the non-profit/NGO sector working both here and abroad. Shayna is currently the Assistant Director of Employer Relations at CAPS. This workshop will go over what a non-profit/NGO is, how one can combine their passion for an issue with a skill, the realities of getting paid (and what a “fair” salary is) and various means of networking. We will also demystify Idealist.org for overseas searches.

Please note, we cannot do individual resume reviews at the workshop however we can discuss various search strategies and scenarios based on your particular interests. You may want to review: <http://uchicago-caps.blogspot.com/2008/10/job-search-strategies-from-non-profit.html> beforehand.
